

Working together to beat bullying

Internet Matters in partnership with tootoot, and supported by the Department for Education, have invited schools to take part in a pilot online service to report bullying and cyberbullying concerns.

Reporting platform and app with resources for students

At the core of the program is the tootoot online reporting platform which gives students and parents an easy and simple way to report all issues relating to bullying.

Resource hub and reporting platform for parents

The reporting platform is supplemented by resource hubs dedicated to staff, students and parents, and will help schools address the issues or concerns that may be raised through the reporting platform.

Safeguarding platform and resource hub for staff

Our aim is to create a one-stop shop for bullying support for school staff, students and parents. Including an Ofsted, SLT and governors live dashboard.

Immediate Media survey of 6-15 year olds showed that...

87%

of bullied children faced bullying in school.

56%

were unsure of how to get help if they or someone they know experiences bullying.

48%

admitted felt nervous telling someone about bullying
