

Encourage your pupils to celebrate the diversity and individuality of their voice. Ask them to fill in the speech bubble with what they feel their voice or personality is. Use the activity as an opportunity to have a class discussion, encouraging your pupils to explain why they have chosen their answer, and talk about how exciting it is that everyone is different, and why it is a positive thing.

Examples include: Strong, Reassuring, Comforting, Honest, Kind